

Member of Edible Communities

edible SEATTLE®

Celebrating the seasonal bounty of Puget Sound

July/August 2017
vol 10/no 4 • $4.99

10 Great
Summer
Recipes

Brain Freeze!

Road Trip: Lopez Island
Ethnic Seattle Food Tours
Cunning Crow and Coffee Flour

events

JULY 7 – 9

Seattle International Beerfest

Featuring more than 220 beers from 16 countries, this summer classic is back for another year at the Seattle Center. Tickets are $30 at the gate (cash only) and include a commemorative beer glass and 10 beer tickets. Online specials also available. 21+ seattlebeerfest.com

JULY 8

Cedars at Dungeness Wine Festival

The third annual event brings 50 local and international wines paired with creative hors d'oeuvres prepared by chef Richard White, plus live music. Your ticket purchase includes a tasting glass, entertainment, and food, all at The Cedars at Dungeness golf course in Sequim. 7cedarsresort.com

JULY 15 & 16

San Juan Island Lavender Festival

Catch the ferry to San Juan Island for a weekend of lavender picnics in the flower fields, plus cooking, crafts, gardening demos, and live music. Parking and festival are free. pelindabalavender.com

JULY 22

Orcas Island Cider & Mead Fest

Join cider and mead enthusiasts at the Eastsound Village Green on Orcas Island for samples from small, local producers. Live music accompanies the tastings, and you can buy bottles of your favorites to take home. orcasislandciderfest.org

JULY 28 & 29

Gig Harbor Wine and Food Festival

Head to the historic waterfront in Gig Harbor and enjoy tastes from an array of wineries, restaurants, and food producers. Friday's event is Sip & Savor Dinners, while Saturday is the Grand Tasting and classes. harborwineandfoodfest.com

JULY 29 & 30

Pacific Northwest Mushroom Festival

The annual mushroom festival returns for a 10th year in Lacey, WA. Offering cooking demonstrations, educational speakers, a 5K run, farm tours, vendors, and a kids zone with entertainment, all held at the Regional Athletic Center. Admission is $5; no pets, please. pnwmushroomfest.org

AUGUST 12

Kitsap Wine Festival

The 9th annual festival at Harborside Fountain Park returns with a celebration of food, wine, and community, from 2 to 5:30 p.m. Enjoy live music, bites from local restaurants, and tastings from Washington wineries, set against the breathtaking views of Puget Sound and the Port of Bremerton Marina. kitsapwinefestival.com

AUGUST 18 & 19

National Lentil Festival

Head over the mountains to Pullman for two days of cooking demonstrations, a fun run, softball game, parade, and the crowning of the little lentil king and queen. The event is topped off by the annual lentil cook-off and the world's largest bowl of lentil chili. lentilfest.com

AUGUST 19

Sausage & CiderFest

Sip hard ciders paired with sausages, while listening to live music and playing lawn games at the new Covington Community Park. Tickets include souvenir tasting glass and sampling tickets, with additional tickets available for purchase. sausageandciderfest.com

AUGUST 25 – 27

Garlic Fest and Craft Show

The South Sound town of Chehalis welcomes you to their annual celebration of garlic, with garlic-themed cuisines, beer, wine, music, and arts and crafts vendors. chehalisgarlicfest.com

Photo by Charity Burgrauf

EDIBLE SEATTLE JULY/AUGUST 2017