

Getting an education in wine

Mary Earl, Kitsap Life columnist Published 4:21 p.m. PT July 13, 2017

And annual Kitsap Wine Festival on the Bremerton's scenic waterfront is always is a celebration of food, wine, sunshine and blue skies. The ninth annual Kitsap Wine Festival will be Aug. 12 at Harborside Fountain Park.

Guests love the Kitsap Wine Festival for the live music, delicious food and wide variety of wine. With delicious treats and great wines, it's hard to imagine a better place to sip and savor than at the Kitsap Wine Festival.

The event will feature a variety of wine seminars and food demonstrations by food and wine experts for those eager to learn. Sip wine and develop your culinary skills, all while experiencing the lovely maritime location. Tickets start at $50, <https://www.kitsapwinefestival.com>.